

Year 1 Think and Write

twinkl

Think and Write

Click to view image full screen

Look at this picture. What words and sentences does it make you think of? We are going to write some sentences based on the picture using the following pattern of sentences. Remember to say your sentence out loud first before you write it!

Sentence 1 Write a sentence about the cake that ends in a full stop (.).

Sentence 2 Write a sentence about who is eating the cake, using a capital letter (A) for their name.

Sentence 3 Use a word that ends in -est.

Sentence 4 Write a sentence using two of these common exception words: were, full, she, says, so, said.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Example Answers

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

The squidgy, chocolaty cake is delicious.

Daisy loves to eat cake and chocolate is her favourite.

This is the softest, sweetest cake she has ever eaten.

She says she is nearly full so I might have to eat some!

Think and Write

Click to view image full screen

Look at this picture. What words and sentences does it make you think of? We are going to write some sentences based on the picture using the following pattern of sentences. Remember to say your sentence out loud first before you write it!

Sentence 1

Write a sentence that ends with a question mark (?).

Sentence 2

Write a sentence about where the ducks are going, using a capital letter (A) for the place.

Sentence 3

Write a sentence using two of these common exception words: the, was, some, ask, push, are.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Example Answers

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

Have you ever seen this many rubber ducks out on their own?

They are going to London to visit the Queen.

The ducks are wearing their best hats.

Some of the naughty ducks are trying to push to the front.

Think and Write

Click to view image full screen

Look at this picture. What words and sentences does it make you think of? We are going to write some sentences based on the picture using the following pattern of sentences. Remember to say your sentence out loud first before you write it!

Sentence 1 Write a sentence that starts with the word 'I'.

Sentence 2 Use a word that ends in -er or -est.

Sentence 3 Write a sentence that includes one of the days of the week.

Sentence 4 Write a sentence using two of these common exception words: we, do, come, here, one, friend.

Read through your passage carefully – does it include everything we are looking for?

Example Answers

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

I love jumping on the trampoline at the beach.

I can jump the highest but my friend can jump faster than me.

We have been on holiday since Monday and I don't want to go home!

I do hope we will come here again one day.

twinkl