

Wednesday 18th September 2017

LO: we are learning to identify and use different types of apostrophes: plural, possessive plural, possessive and contraction.

New Island discovered!

senior reporter Jemma McAlister

ON the 2nd of October, the HMS Beagle <sup>and led</sup> ~~the~~ captain Fitzroy and his crew, discovered a new <sup>Tropical</sup> ~~deserted~~ island. It was <sup>inhabited by south</sup> ~~full~~ of American <sup>tribe</sup> ~~tribe~~ but amongst them there was a young <sup>intelligent</sup> ~~boy~~ boy <sup>called</sup> ~~of~~ Jeremy Button. It was found. He was 9 years old, naked and ~~he~~ <sup>lived</sup> with tribal family.

Jeremy ~~lived~~ <sup>is</sup> ~~found~~ <sup>located</sup> in the Tera del Sago region. It has a tropical climate <sup>with</sup> ~~no~~ long trees <sup>and</sup> big round bushes. Small tribes <sup>rummaged</sup> ~~the~~ island to hunt down animals to eat for dinner. The Jeremy <sup>regularly</sup> ~~first~~ climbed the highest mountain to gaze at the stars.

According to captain Fitzroy he named Jeremy <sup>Button</sup> because <sup>he was</sup> ~~curious~~ curious about the pearl <sup>button</sup> on his jacket. "He was <sup>absolutely</sup> ~~absolutely~~ <sup>fascinated</sup> ~~curious~~ about that Button," Fitzroy <sup>writes</sup> ~~wrote~~ in his letters.

EBI use a range of apostrophe types