

Thursday 14th November

We're learning to use accurate punctuation

Once there was a prince ^{who} ~~that~~ lived in a colossal brick ~~castle~~ ~~castle~~. The prince named Jessie lived with her father who was the king. The powerful heartful king forced her to get married. Although she was loved by all she had a twisted heart she didn't care about love.

One day she wandered into the night then a ~~debut~~ neighboring prince who zinged immediately. He scrambled in his bag and taken out a pure gold ring. He felt down and said will you marry me? Jessie showed the ring whole! She said what's ~~that~~ what I think of love. ~~She~~ In a flash she ran into a forest.

For many days she ~~was~~ ^{was} rising around and found a hut with sleeping keep out or else... She roared and said I'm hungry and cold. Enter then. ~~She was counting~~

I won't give you my food as the
the door was half open and she successfully opened the door and saw a witch! She said Jessie said there will be consequences. The witch said I'll show you consequences!
abracadabra! She turned into a wart, hog!
She rolled out and ran into the king!
He shot her and brought to the castle.
She got roasted and the ring melted