d e Earlier today, I saw something that took me back f a long time. I saw a dog on the bridge g where my mother died. I felt the slight nollay h where her tooth hit the bridge. This caused me i to remember her tragic death. I threw a pen off j the bridge to remember my Mum's last moments. k If only she would have listened to me. My Mum l and I were walking the dog until... the dog m jumped off the bridge. My Mum ran after him.

n
o My mother ran down the walkway onto the lake.
p When she reached the bottom, she jumped in after the dog.
q There was a strong current that day and Mum was being r pulled towards a lock that was closing its gates. I s ran towards the control panel for the lock but t I needed to find a keycard to operate the u panel. I was terrified. I called out for help v but there was nobody nearby. Don't give up w I said to myself.

As my Mum drifted helplessly towards the closing gates, I fell to the floor and shut my eyes tightly.
Suddenly, a smooth plastic object touched my hand.
I opened my eyes and in front of me was the keycard that would turn on the control panel. I rushed to my feet and placed the keycard in the panel.
I grabbed hold of the joystick in the centre of the panel and began to move it. It controlled a crane on the other side of the river. Suddenly,
