

Tuesday 20th November 2018

L.O We are learning to use varied vocabulary in our writing.

Dear Diary,

After the long and tiring & jorny, I found myself looking at the bright night sky. It was like a dream but a real dream. There were glowing streams by my feet and wet snow on the beautiful mountains above my head. I saw light in the distance it ^{looked} was astonishing it was the northern lights. It shone brightly like a night light. I had to ^{look} closer. When I was up at the top of the mountain, it was brighter than ever. I was half way down the hill, when I saw a ^{Narrow} path I hadn't seen when I was walking up the hill. Whilst I was walking on the colourful mountains path, I saw a geyser and it kept squirting hot water so I had to come and see it. As soon as I walked on I came to the hot squirting geyser. It ^{showered} the ^{pretty} plants around it. It wasn't that hot at start but then it got really hot so I threw some snow on it. When I was finished admiring the geyser, I saw a small brown cottage beside the icy stream. I walked down and knocked on the door. No one was there so I ^{walk} opened the door and went inside. There